Worlds of Women - International Material in ARAB's Collections

Worlds of Women is a project that aims to inspire researchers, both academics and those actively interested in researching working women's history, to look beyond national borders. This is an overview of available sources at the Labour Movement Archives and Library (ARAB) in form of essays and inventories.

The General Strike

Dock Pickets

Dispatch riders waiting outside Transport House

The documents, reports, cartoons and photographs shown in this section are a selection taken from the General Strike Collection in the TUC Library Collections held at the London Metropolitan University. Although some 2000 images are available here, the whole Collection is much larger and researchers may contact the Library for more details.

The General Strike Collection comprises material collected by library staff in 1926 and includes TUC documents and bulletins, printed publications and newspapers from Britain and overseas. Other records, such as bulletins produced by local trades councils and strike committees, dispatch riders' reports, photographs etc, were passed to the Library from other TUC Departments. The names of Herbert Tracey [1884-1955] and W. Milne-Bailey [1891-1935], who were the heads of the Publicity and Research Departments respectively, can be seen on many of the documents. Milne-Bailey also deposited the manuscript of his unpublished history "A Nation on Strike" in the Library.

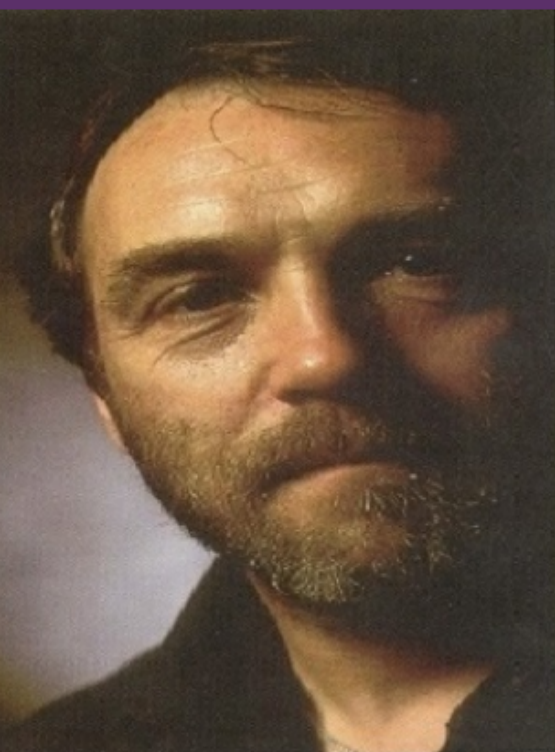

Additional TUC files from the General Strike period are available at the Modern Records Centre at the University of Warwick. A catalogue for this collection can be viewed here.

A STORY IN 'LE MONDE' TODAY IMPLICATES HIGH RANKING MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT IN THE BOMBING OF THE RAINBOW WARRIOR, INCLUDING DEFENSE MINISTER CHARLES HERNU. IT ALSO CLAIMS THAT THERE WAS ANOTHER

TEAM OF DIVERS INVOLVED IN THE ACTUAL BOMBING. OUR RESPONSE AT THIS STAGE SHOULD BE THE FOLLOWING:

WE CANNOT SPECULATE ON THE DETAILS OF THE BOMBING AND WARRIOR
LEADING UP TO THE BOMBING.

AS FAR AS THE OTHER MATTER IS CONCERNED, THE INTERNAL MACHINATIONS OF
THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT ARE PRES. MITTERRAND'S AFFAIR, AND NO CONCERN
OF OURS. HOWEVER, WE WOULD LIKE TO REMIND PRES. MITTERRAND AT THE

BEGINNING OF 'L'AFFAIRE', HE CALLED FOR 'JUSTICE AT THE HIGHEST

Social History Portal

- News Service : working good !
- Collective Catalogue : stand still after HOPE project (2013)
- DSI project : 5 new data providers coming
- WE NEED MORE – Some ideas :
 - Link catalogues automatically (OAI-PMH)
 - More powerful search interface (VuFind?)

New Project Proposals

- After DSI-project, new EU project proposal in 2016-2017 ?
- MiMake proposal (on migration history) scored 13/15 in 2015, resubmit ?
- Map all projects IALHI members are participating in ?
- Calls & Funds outside Europe ?

Call for Cooperation !

- Social History Portal is open to every IALHI member !
- Join in to make your catalogues and online objects more widely available !
- New projects : on Labour history, Migration history, Social movements etc.
We need project partners !
